

Certified TRITON APX Inside Sales Representative

Certified TRITON APX

INSIDE SALES REPRESENTATIVE

Inside Sales Professionals are experts at remote or virtual sales. These skilled professionals provide an expansive interface to partners, customers and potential clients. They are expected to understand the needs of their customers and be able to quickly find suitable solutions to solve their problems. A broad understanding of industry, trends, concerns and problems faced by customers is key to the success of Inside Sales Professionals.

To assist Inside Sales Representatives with their day-to-day functions, Websense offers the Certified TRITON APX Inside Sales Representative training. This training consists of nine (9) computer-based training (video) modules. These modules provide an overview of Websense TRITON® APX, APT, business problems and the Websense solution, competitors, objection handling and how to engage with Websense.
