

Cloud Adoption Across Federal Government Agencies

More than 600 federal influencers and decision makers weigh in on cloud adoption trends, including security successes and challenges.

Sponsored by FORCEPOINT

55% say their agencies have strongly embraced the cloud, but many are still struggling with security.

Visibility and governance are challenges to securing cloud use. 71%

Security concerns are inhibiting cloud adoption. 67%

Security in cloud environments is more challenging. 45%

Network performance is inhibiting cloud transformation. 75%

A majority of agencies utilize SaaS for at least 30% of mission-critical resources.

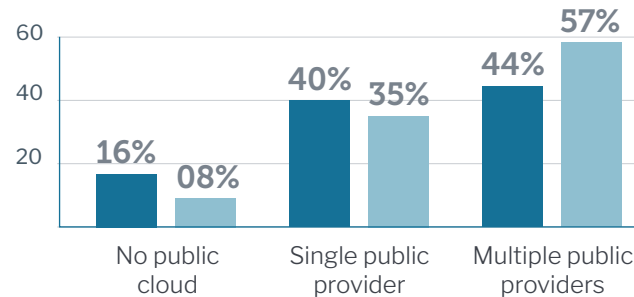

Utilize 250+ SaaS apps across their environment.

Cloud Adoption Trends

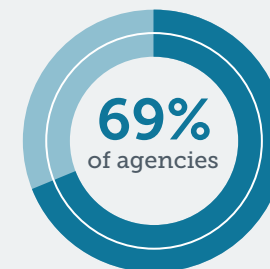

Increasing hybrid environments

Utilizing multiple cloud providers

FedRAMP authorizations for cloud service providers are lagging.

Reporting less than half of current cloud service providers are FedRAMP authorized.